

Love Made Love

Established in 2011, Love Made Love is the go-to brand for stylish baby and children's clothes for those between 1 and 13 years. With a brand identity that revolves around beautiful ideas, style and, most importantly, love. Love Made Love unconventional designs and premium quality pieces are what all parents want to dress their children in.

Perfect quality and fit are essential to us, because we know how important these aspects are to parents. Given the collections are not mass-produced, you can rely on the label delivering every piece with the designer's own personal touch, allowing your child to wear something completely individual and effortlessly stylish.

Every collection is based on the concept of a grown-up's wardrobe - this adorable 'mini-me' concept that allows you and your child to select pieces you feel are reminiscent of your personal style.
